How Strong is Satan?

Tyler King

If we were to hypothesize some sort spiritual hierarchy, where would Satan be on that list? For whatever reason, we have the tendency of making him inferior only to the Godhead and no one else. A popular train of thought might put Satan second to God, then angels, and humans as last..

Revelation 12:7-8 reveals an angel named Michael and his army defeat the dragon (Satan). This angel is never given the title of deity, yet he was strong enough to defeat Satan.

The book of Job reveals a man who is able to overcome Satan's tactics. In the first two chapters of the book, Satan is given permission by God to test Job. Satan's energy and focus were entirely on Job at that point. Literally every aspect of Job's life fell to pieces. Yet, when you fast forward to chapter 42, Job is seen as triumphant. Many lessons can be gleaned from Job, but perhaps the greatest is the reality of victory over Satan.

Matthew 4:1-11 reveals a Saviour who is stronger than Satan. Satan tries every form of deceit yet, the Messiah was able to come back with arguments against Satan and further resist him. This eventually caused the devil to flee. One might think that this example is a no-brainer since Christ is God. However, keep in mind that He emptied himself and took on the form of man (Ph. 2:5-8). This meant that He was tempted and tried just as we are.

So then. If angels can have strength over Satan, and man can have strength over him, and the Saviour can too, what's preventing us? I want to encourage you -- though Satan may be adequately equipped to make our lives miserable, he is not omniscient, omnipresent, nor is he omnipotent. But we have a God without limits.

I don't know what temptation you're dealing with and I don't know your situation, but remember that you have the opportunity to be stronger.

WORLD NEWS

Extraordinary church growth in Brazil

The town of Tefé, in the heart of the Amazon, has no roads leading in, the only access being by water or air. Yet a church in Tefé has become a phenomenal church-planting hub, with over 420 churches being planted in the last two years. Many of these rural churches are even deeper in the jungle, but local pastors are caring for them and their communities. Evangelising indigenous groups has always carried unique challenges, but the outreach continues, as indigenous evangelists and pastors bring messages of hope, read the Bible, sing songs of worship, provide practical aid and proclaim the gospel.

When a flashlight grows dim or quits working, do you just throw it away? Of course not. You change the batteries. ✎. When a person messes up or finds themselves in a dark place, do you cast them aside? Of course not! You help them change their batteries. Some need AA...attention and affection; some need AAA...attention, affection, and acceptance; some need C....compassion; some need D...direction. And if they still don't seem to shine...simply sit with them quietly and share your light. 💕

Recently Mick and Anne Spann with their children visited our area . Mick is a registered Baptist pastor on an extended sabbatical with his family. They are seeking God's direction for future ministry, and the leadership here had positive discussions with them about the possibility that their ministry might here in Tin Can Bay. We will keep you informed as and if things develop.
