Spiritual Bucket List

Creating the proverbial "bucket list" can be a lot of fun. Coming up with a list of things you would like to do one day in the not-too-distant future is also a good way to take the first step in accomplishing your goals.

As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are expected to be growing (1 Peter 2:2; 2 Peter 3:18). We are also expected to be a positive influence on those around us, pointing people toward God (Matthew 5:13-16).

In light of these things, it may be helpful to create some sort of "spiritual bucket list." A list of thing you know you should be doing as you mature in the faith.

Here are a few suggestions to help you get started:

Teach Someone. Have a real Bible study where you sit down, open Bibles all around, and you present the life-saving message of the Gospel (Matt. 28:19; 2 Tim. 2:2).

Reconcile a broken relationship. For many of us, there is at least one person out there that needs to hear, "please forgive me" from you (Rom 12:18).

Memorize. Maybe favorite passages or chapters, maybe several verses that pertain to a certain subject (for example, numerous verses dealing with forgiveness).

Really study on your own. Away from the church building, pick a book of the Bible or a topic and really dive in and learn (1 Tim. 2:15).

Christians impacting Ethiopia

From an Ethiopian pastor:

"We have a community training program and God is changing people. They are learning Christian doctrine through your Basic Christianity books. We also had a development training program for 40 people, and among them ten received Jesus Christ as Saviour. We have holistic programs for more than 300 households. The work is challenging but the hand of God is with us. These people are poorest of the poor, and we are so happy serving them by sharing from what the Lord provides. We show them hope for the future."

Thought
for the week

Psalm 92:12

'The righteous (godly) will flourish like a palm tree...'

Part of God's plan for your life is that you would flourish. He wants you to thrive and not strive.

As you follow Him, He brings the growth and progress into your life, so put Him first and see what He will do in and through your life.

MORNING TEA

New year means new rosters and I would dearly love to have your name on the morning tea roster. At the moment our church family gets together over a cuppa on the second and fourth Sunday of each month. This means that in Term1 there are 4 opportunities for you to minister to your church family. I have listed the dates below to make it easy for you to check your diaries. Also, there are no limits to what you can do with regards food. Pre-packaged biscuits are provided so no one should feel obliged to bake. If you've not helped before I will give you a hand and show you the ropes. Looking forward to serving our church family alongside you. Eleanor.

Available dates are:

12 Feb

26 Feb

12 Mar

26 Mar

Please let Eleanor know the dates you are available.
